3. General Participation Information

Please note that a quorum of commissioners may attend but no decisions will be made or voted on at these hearings.

Members of the public must use the in-person or phone number options to provide verbal comments. When it is time for comments, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) will make an announcement. Participants using the phone options who wish to make a comment must follow the procedures, as directed above. Public officials wishing to speak should provide their name, title, and governmental entity prior to speaking. Based on the number of speakers wishing to provide comments, the ALJ may limit speakers time so that all speakers have an opportunity to comment, and to promote an orderly hearing.

The Commission's court reporters will record the statements made during the hearing and post the transcript on the Commission's website at the Docket Card for this proceeding.

If you need a language interpreter, please contact the CPUC's Public Advisor's Office at least five business days before the hearing, using one of the following methods:

Phone: 1-866-849-8390 (toll-free) or 1-415-703-2074

Mail: CPUC Public Advisor's Office, 505 Van Ness Avenue San Francisco, CA 94102

E-mail: Public.Advisor@cpuc.ca.gov

In addition to the January 26 and 31, 2023 public participation hearings, customers may submit written public comments at any time during the proceeding and read other public comments via the Commission's website at the Docket Card for this proceeding, using the Public Comment tab at: apps.cpuc.ca.gov/c/A2112007. Your participation by providing your thoughts on PG&E's request can help the Commission make an informed decision.

4. Directives to PG&E

For the January 26 hearing, PG&E shall prepare the name, title, and telephone number of at least one PG&E senior customer service representative who can be reached by customers during the hearing for individual service or billing issues and one PG&E representative prepared to respond to specific questions about material in this Application. PG&E shall provide this information to the Public Advisor's Office no later than seven days before the public participation hearing. This information may be posted for the public during the hearing.

For the January 31 hearing, PG&E shall have a customer service representative in person who can assist customers with service and billing issues.

PG&E shall also have at least one representative prepared to respond to specific questions about material in this Application in person at the hearing.

Pursuant to Rule 13.1(b) and (c),¹ PG&E is directed to take, at a minimum, the below actions to ensure that customer notice regarding the public participation hearings is distributed in a comprehensive manner:

- Post notice of the public participation hearing in at least one newspaper in each geographic region in its service territory. In a geographic region with a notable number of non-English speaking customers, post notice of the public participation hearing in a regional newspaper in those languages and secure radio advertising broadcasted in non-English languages;
- Include notice of the public participation hearing in mailed bill to customers that currently receive bills via the United States Postal Service;
- Send e-mail messages to all customers that have provided PG&E with an e-mail address and the subject line of this e-mail must clearly advise the recipient that this public participation hearing will be held in this proceeding. The body of the e-mail must include the same information as approved by the Commission's Public Advisor's Office in the bill notice. In addition, e-mail messages shall not be combined with an e-mail electronic bill but, instead, be sent separately from a customer's electronic bill;

¹ Rule 13.1(b) and (c) provides as follows: (b) Whenever any electrical, gas, heat, telephone, water, or sewer system utility files an application to increase any rate, the utility shall give notice of any public participation hearing that may be set in the proceeding, not less than five nor more than 30 days before the date of the public participation hearing, to entities or persons who may be affected thereby, by posting notice in public places, which may include the website of the utility, and by publishing notice in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the area or areas concerned, of the time, date, and place of hearing. Proof of publication and sample copies of the notices shall be filed within 10 days after publication. (c) In addition to the notice required by this rule, parties shall provide such notice of hearing as the presiding officer may designate.

- Publicize the public participation hearing on all social media platforms used by PG&E;
- Post notice of these public participation hearing on PG&E's website in a prominent location so that customers easily access the notice/information; and
- Ensure all the above communication methods are compatible with electronic or remote access and clearly state hearing can be accessed remotely or attended in-person.

Not later than seven days prior to the public participation hearing, PG&E shall file and provide the Commission's Public Advisor's Office a letter verifying PG&E has complied with the above directives. This letter shall state the dates PG&E sent the referenced types of notices to customers, the methods used, and the approximate number of customers notified by each method. PG&E's filing shall also provide the dates and locations of publication and posting. A copy of PG&E's public participation hearing notice shall be attached to this filing.

IT IS RULED that:

1. Notice is hereby provided that a remote public participation hearing will be held in this proceeding at 6:00 p.m. on January 26, 2023 and may be accessed remotely via the phone numbers and links provided above.
2. Notice is hereby provided that an in-person public participation hearing will be held in this proceeding at 6:00 p.m. January 31, 2023 and may be accessed in-person at the address provided above.

3. Not later than seven days prior to the public participation hearing, PG&E shall file and provide the Commission's Public Advisor's Office a letter verifying PG&E has complied with the directives set forth in Section 4.

Dated December 1, 2022, at San Francisco, California.
